

A DISPLAY OF ROYAL MAGNIFICENCE

Banquet and Shakespeare Ball Brilliant Features of Coronation Week Festivities

THE $15,000,000 GOLD PLATE SHOWN

Wines Over a Century Old Served in Ancient Ivory Decanters—Actors and Actresses Participate in Shakespearean Quadrilles—Royal Guests in Gorgeous Attire—American Jackies Well Treated.

London, June 20.—The most regal banquet the palace of a king or an emperer ever witnessed and a gorgeous Shakespearean ball under the stars were the features of coronation week festivities.

The banquet in Buckingham palace tonight was a scene of imperial grandeur, as far as the assembly of royal and eminent personages, the setting of costly magnificence and beautiful decorations could make it.

King and Queen Entertain.

The king and queen entertained the visiting and English royalties, all the special foreign delegations, the foreign ambassadors and ministers, the officers of state and the household members of the cabinet and former cabinet members, the heads of the church and judiciary, and of the army and the navy.

Royal Gold Plate Displayed.

The two largest apartments in the palace, the ballroom and the picture gallery, which were utilized as a banquet hall, on the tables were displayed the royal gold plate, used only at such occasions, the value of which is estimated at $15,000,000, and of which weight at eight tons. This plate was for the most part collected in the reigns of the four Georges.

Cut Glass Worth a Fortune.

The principal piece in a massive peacock chandelier in one of the Indian wars, the tail of which was made of diamonds. Cut glass worth a fortune, fifty decanters hundreds of years old and old wines dating back more than a century, were served.

Over 800 Pictures in Gallery.

The gallery holds more than 800 pictures. The decorations of both rooms are largely gilt and the background was embellished with banks of palms and giant lilies, white orchids, roses and ferns were stacked on the tables.

Quadrilles at Shakespearean Ball.

The Shakespearean ball was held in Albert hall, which was elaborately decorated. The dancers numbered

Cabled Paragraphs

Paris, June 20.—American Telegraph and Telephone company shares were traded in for the first time on the bourse today and at the close were quoted at 750 francs.

Berlin, June 20.—Dr. David Jayne Hill, who recently resigned his post as American ambassador to Germany, left for Kiel today to present his letters of recall to Emperor William.

Liverpool, June 20.—The Cunard, White Star and Allan lines today conceded the advances tendered by the striking seamen and arranged a compromise on other points with the strikers.

Vienna, June 20.—It is now known that eighteen persons were killed and 25 severely injured, some of them fatally, when troops fired a volley into a crowd of election rioters at Drobobu yesterday.

Willemstad, Curacao, June 20.—Upon her arrival here last night the Dutch steamer Prins Frederik Hendrik was searched by the police to determine whether or not she carried arms. She was found to be carrying a small quantity of arms.

London, June 20.—Charles F. G. Masterson, under secretary of state in the home office, today was deprived of his seat in the house of commons for the north division of West Ham by the law courts, which found that his election was tainted by corrupt practices on the part of his agents.

MAN WHO ROCKED BOAT GOT HIS EYE BLACKED.

Court Decided That He Received His Just Deserts.

New York, June 20.—The man that rocked the boat got what he deserved yesterday at Pine Brook, near Caldwell, N. J. Robert Pesolone, 34 years of age, and John Maguire of Paterson and Helen Devine and Mary Schmidt of Newark went boating on the Passaic river.

When the party was in the middle of the stream Goloski, a giant in size and strength, who was the boat's master, protested. Goloski rocked the craft all the harder. The two young women screamed. Then Goloski, laughing loud, rocked the boat until water came in.

Maguire's coolness averted disaster. He held the boat steady until the water subsided. Then Goloski, laughing loud, rocked the boat until water came in.

Two anglers in another skiff ahead of Goloski, who was the boat's master, protested. Goloski rocked the craft all the harder. The two young women screamed. Then Goloski, laughing loud, rocked the boat until water came in.

Maguire's coolness averted disaster. He held the boat steady until the water subsided. Then Goloski, laughing loud, rocked the boat until water came in.

PLUCKY WIFE GUARDS HER MANIAC HUSBAND.

Baltimore Man, Crazy on Religion, Terrorizes Neighborhood.

Baltimore, June 20.—After a search of over thirty hours John Leubecker, an insane man from Spring Grove asylum, was captured today by the police on the Philadelphia road. Leubecker had terrorized the neighborhood of Baltimore and Hamilton since last night.

His wife stood guard over her husband, who was a man of great strength and courage. She would shoot her husband if he made a hostile move toward her. She did not abandon her vigil until she had secured a safe in the house.

Leubecker had threatened to kill his wife. He had threatened to kill his wife. He had threatened to kill his wife. He had threatened to kill his wife. He had threatened to kill his wife.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN NEXT MONTH.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, June 20.—The campaign publicity bill was reported from the senate committee on privileges and immunities today. The bill has been amended and now carries primaries on all forms of election.

Today Senator Root gave notice that he would discuss the phases of Canadian reciprocity tomorrow. The senator's investigation before the subcommittee of the senate committee on privileges and immunities began today.

The house avoided a vote on the Anderson pension bill yesterday by adjourning immediately after the chaplain's prayer. An adjournment was made on Saturday. The adjournment was made on Saturday. The adjournment was made on Saturday.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE SETTLED.

New York, June 20.—The difference between the coastwise steamship companies and the seamen was adjusted tonight, bringing to an end the strike against the Morgan line and averting a threatened general strike on the coastwise service. This statement was made by H. F. Griffen, vice president of the International Seamen's union.

BEARDED LION IN HIS DEN.

Mexico City, June 20.—Notwithstanding all the rumors that he would be arrested and tried by court martial, General Emiliano Zapata, commander of the revolutionary forces in the state of Morelos, drove a big automobile into the capital today and placed himself in the open-air theater of the city. He was there for twenty minutes before he was free to return immediately to Cuernavaca.

"All in a Fog" at Yale.

New Haven, June 20.—With the giving of the play "All in a Fog," written by T. A. Williams of the class of 1911, the open-air theater of the campus today, the day's festivities of the reunion classes of Yale were brought to a close.

BRIDGEPORT BOY DROWNED.

Bridgeport, June 20.—Julius Gallitelli, seven years old of Hallock street, was drowned today while bathing in the water of the city's harbor.

That $100,000 Lorimer Fund

LARGEST STEAMER AFLOAT REACHES NEW YORK.

ARRIVES AHEAD OF TIME

FUNK TOLD HIM ABOUT IT

Washington, June 20.—Through its first witness, Cyrus H. McCormick of Chicago, president of the International Harvester company, the senate committee investigating Senator Lorimer's right to his seat, succeeded today in introducing into its record the principal allegations upon which the senate was induced to reopen the case against the Illinois senator.

Request for $100,000 Contribution.

It was to Clarence Funk, manager of the Chicago Motor Car company, that Edward Hines is alleged to have made the request for a contribution of $100,000 to be raised for Lorimer's defense.

Funk Told McCormick of It.

Mr. McCormick said Funk told him of this proposal, and that he refused, Mr. McCormick said further that the Harvester company made it a practice to hold aloof from politics and to avoid efforts to influence legislation.

Company Opposed Some Legislation.

Taking this as a cue, counsel for Senator Lorimer sought to have the bill admitted to the record. The bill was admitted to the record. The bill was admitted to the record.

Hines' Counsel Represents Lorimer.

Mr. Lorimer was represented today by William J. Hynes of Chicago. Hynes' purpose in attending the hearings is to represent Edward Hines, the Chicago lumber man, whose name has been brought into the case as that of a contributor to the fund of $100,000 in Lorimer's interest.

No Line of Defense to Be Neglected.

By his counsel, Mr. Hynes made it clear that the intention of Mr. Lorimer to neglect a line of defense against the charges was not to be neglected. The intention of Mr. Lorimer to neglect a line of defense against the charges was not to be neglected.

Effort to Show Opposition to Lorimer.

The evident purpose was to show a general motive for the opposition to Senator Lorimer. The evident purpose was to show a general motive for the opposition to Senator Lorimer.

GIRL DECLARES SHE WAS NOT ABDUCTED.

Says Parents Toss Her to "Absolute Life" Founder.

Chicago, June 20.—Testimony favorable to Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the Absolute Life cult, who is charged with abducting Mildred Bridges, a girl, was given today by Miss Bridges at the trial of the cult's leader.

She testified that she was not abducted by See; that she was taken to See's "temple" by her parents, and that she never gave up her personal talks regarding the mysterious "Absolute Life" until she went to her home to live.

LACKED TWO SENSES, BUT WON THE HONORS.

Valdettiano and Salutatorian Were Both Dumb and Blind.

New York, June 20.—For the first time in the history of the city, a student who lacked two senses, but won the honors, was graduated from the city's high school.

Both Miss Ella M. Hopkins, the valedictorian, and her classmate, Salutatorian, were said by their instructors to be practically deaf and blind.

BISHOP DISCOURAGES WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Tells Girl Graduates to Exert Their Influence at Home.

Portland, Me., June 20.—In his address before the graduates of St. Joseph's Academy for girls today, Bishop Louis S. Walsh of the Roman Catholic diocese of Portland, expressed the hope that there would never be a woman's suffrage movement.

Passenger Jumped Overboard.

Chester, June 20.—On the arrival of the steamer President Grant here today, the captain reported that during the voyage a second cabin passenger, Frederick Becker, jumped overboard and was lost, despite efforts to rescue him.

Drawn Trying to Save Hat.

New Haven, June 20.—Not willing to lose his hat, Frank Lynch of the city, was drawn into the water today and was drowned. Lynch was walking across the bridge over the city's harbor.

STEAMER BEN ENN WAS ABANDONED OFF BARRE POINT, N. S.

The steamer Ben Enn was abandoned off Barre Point, N. S., today.

HOUSE REDUCES THE DUTY ON WOOL

Underwood Wool Tariff Revision Bill Passes by a Vote of 221 to 100

24 REPUBLICANS AID DEMOCRATS

Ohio Democrat Votes Against Measure—Bill Reduces Duty on Raw Wool 24 Per Cent. and on Manufactured Products 47.5 Per Cent.—Not Likely to Pass the Senate—Curtails Revenues $1,000,000.

Washington, June 20.—The house of representatives by a vote of 221 to 100 today passed the Underwood wool tariff revision bill, providing for the reduction of the duty on wool and the manufacture of wool.

24 Republicans in Favor.

Twenty-four republicans voted with the democrats for the measure, and one democrat, Representative Francis, of Ohio, voted against it.

Debate for Five Hours.

Many amendments were offered and voted down, the only one adopted being a slight change in phrasing. Almost five hours were spent by the house in debate under the five-minute rule.

Payne's Effort at Delay.

Immediately preceding the final vote, a motion offered by Representative Payne of New York that the bill be referred to the committee on woolen industries, was defeated.

Democrats Kept in Line.

Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee, who was in charge of the bill, kept his forces well together in their opposition to all amendments.

Will Curtail Revenue $1,000,000.

The ways and means committee has estimated the bill would reduce the annual revenue under the woolen schedule of the tariff by a little more than $1,000,000.

To Go Into Effect Jan. 1.

The bill prescribes that it shall go into effect Jan. 1, 1911, and it is not believed that the bill will pass the senate at this session.

EFFORT TO COLLECT OVER A MILLION IN TAXES

Claim That Late Senator Elkins Did Not Properly List His Property.

Elkins, W. Va., June 20.—A motion for judgment against the Davis Trust company, ex-Senator Davis Elkins' executor, was made today by the late senator's son, Mr. Elkins, who is executor of the late senator's estate.

PHILANTHROPIC MOVE OF SUGAR TRUST MAGNATE.

Havemeyer Consolidated Refining Companies to Keep Them from Busting.

Washington, June 20.—The consolidation of the Sugar Trust, the New York and the Yonkers Refining companies into the Yonkers Sugar Refining company of New York, in 1906, was effected by the late Senator Elkins.

CRIPPLED LAWYER GETS IN TROUBLE

Found Guilty of Professional Misconduct in Connection with Case.

London, June 20.—Arthur Newton, the attorney for Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, who was hanged for the murder of his American wife, Belle Elmore, has been found guilty of professional misconduct in connection with the case.

CONGRATULATIONS STILL POUR IN ON THE TAFTS

Fully 1,000 Delayed Telegrams and Cables Reached Them Yesterday.

Washington, June 20.—Delayed telegrams and cable messages to President Taft and Mrs. Taft, congratulating them on the anniversary of their wedding, which was celebrated last night, continued to reach the White House today.

MURDERED BY A FORMER BOARDER

Passaic Woman and Her Slayer Found with Bullets in Heads.

Passaic, N. J., June 20.—The bodies of Mrs. Ida A. Margan and Henry Margan, who were found yesterday with bullets in their heads, were found in the house where they were living.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON TERRITORIES

Will Vote Tomorrow on the Admission of New Mexico and Arizona.

Washington, June 20.—The senate committee on territories today will vote on the admission of New Mexico and Arizona. The committee will vote on the admission of New Mexico and Arizona.

RENTON VOTES FOR A COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

Majority For It Was 1,902 in a Total Vote of 11,882.

Trenton, N. J., June 20.—Commission government was favored today by the majority in the state of New Jersey. The majority in favor of the adoption of this form of government was 1,902 to 11,882.

Rev. Dr. George H. Ferris

Announced the Baptist World Alliance, in connection with the celebration of the centennial of the birth of Christ.

A Party of Farm Folk Gathered

under the windows of J. Walter Forre, a young bridegroom in the village of Livingston, N. J., to give the bride a surprise.

Matthew Hart of New Bedford

was elected president of the Federation of Cloth Weavers of America at its annual convention.